

$10 a Week

Life4Kids now provides for thirty-five boys. Recently, costs have escalated (see story below). You have read our pleas for support. We still have two unsponsored boys. Will you step forward today to help? $40 per week for a full sponsorship; $20 per week for a ½; $10 per week for ¼. Please consider!

Costs are Rising

We recently received this message from Executive Director Jane Wasike: “Life in Kenya is very expensive right now as compared to the last few months. Last week the President signed a financial bill that has put more financial burdens on the common citizens. The prices for commodities have gone so high, life has become so expensive. For example, cooking gas was at 2,200, now is at 2,700 kshs [Kenyan Shillings]; Cooking oil 20 litres is at 4,900 kshs from 3,300 kshs. This will cause our budget to go so high....”

Other News from Nairobi

Jane reports: “We are all doing well. The children ... returned to school for the first term. The new boys [the three recent additions] have been trained and prepared enough, they are now ready to go to school. We have budgeted for their schooling in the August budget.”

Graduation is a Big Deal

... even if you're graduating from Kindergarten. Two of our young grads shown here now enter Grade 1. Their “brothers” celebrated!

Family Portrait

And you thought you had a problem fitting everyone into the family portrait. These are the twenty-five boys under the age of 18 who live in the Life4Kids home in Nairobi, Kenya.

Meet Pastor Martin Giebel

Each month we introduce you to one of the leaders of Life4Kids, whether serving in Kenya, Norway, or Canada. This month we feature Canadian Director Pastor Martin Giebel. Martin was born in Germany and ordained there as a Lutheran Pastor. Today he serves as Pastor at St. Mark's Anglican-Lutheran Church in Midland.

Message from Jane

As we did last month, we leave the last word to Jane who recently wrote: “I am always grateful for all your sacrifice, love and commitment towards this noble job. Words cannot express how all the staff and the children feel. Thank you for choosing to change lives.”
