

Support for Life4Kids

It's the time of year when we reflect on the past year and prepare for the year ahead. At Life4Kids Canada, we're grateful for the support that you have provided in 2022. And we're hopeful that all those of you who didn't provide support in 2022 might consider a monthly gift of support in 2023.

Where Does the Money Go?

At Life4Kids Canada, more than 95% of the donated funds go directly to the support of 36 little boys in Nairobi, Kenya. In fact, the only overhead costs are bank fees, insurance premiums and audit fees.

In Kenya, Jane runs a "tight ship". At the beginning of each calendar year, Jane estimates the operating costs for the home and for education of the boys. And she lives by that budget, right to the dollar. Jane was able to fund all operations with her budgeted revenues (she needed less than $400 more than her annual six figure budget). Do you know any business that budgets that well?

Life4Kids Canada is now responsible for almost 70% of that budget.

Update on the Boys

The boys have all successfully completed the 2022 academic year and will move to the next level. All the boys are now at home for a very long holiday (from December 2 until January 22).

Four of the young boys have graduated to Grade 1 with excellent grades. There was a special celebration for them [see picture]. Four more boys have successfully completed their primary education and will be moving on to high school. Another boy has completed his final exam in high school.

Jane Recovering from Accident

Our CEO in Kenya, Jane Wasike, was involved in a serious bus accident in November. She had been visiting her ill father in the countryside. On her return bus trip to Nairobi, the bus rolled over. Jane injured her collarbone and her back. She had an internal infection. She had severe pain and bloating in her abdomen. We are so grateful that Jane is feeling better. She spent Christmas with her family.

Jane's comments on School Successes

"These are the results and achievements of all our sponsors and partners like you, generously giving and supporting all these precious boys."
