

“Feel the Love” – Feb. 3 at 7:00 PM at MCC

This Tuesday, you will have a chance to see the impact of Life4Kids firsthand. On Tuesday, February 3rd at 7:00 p.m. at the Midland Cultural Centre, Life4Kids Canada will host “Feel the Love,” an evening of stories, video, and personal reflections about Life4Kids.

Attendees will be taken on a virtual tour of the home near Nairobi and meet some of the boys through video messages. Guests will hear from graduates of the program. Local volunteers who travelled to Kenya will share their experiences. Life4Kids staff will speak about the boys' remarkable transformations. The event is made possible by the support of the Midland Cultural Centre, the Midland Rotary Club and the sponsorship of Armin and Annemarie Grigaitis.

A New Year of Hope, Leadership & Gratitude

As we step into a new year, our hearts are filled with hope, faith, and deep gratitude. At Life4Kids, we enter this year encouraged by the lives already transformed and inspired by the many more still to come. Your love continues to create a safe home, joyful hearts, and hopeful futures.

Leadership Reflection – Jane Wasike, CEO, Life4Kids Kenya

As we begin 2026, we take a moment to reflect on the heart behind Life4Kids Kenya and its leadership, calling, and unwavering commitment to vulnerable children.

Jane Wasike is the Chief Executive Officer of Life4Kids Kenya, a dedicated and compassionate young woman whose life is devoted to protecting and nurturing vulnerable children in Africa. She holds a degree in Social Work and has served faithfully at Life4Kids since 2011.

Jane's journey began as a volunteer, driven by a deep desire to serve. Through years of commitment, sacrifice, and hands-on service, she rose to become the Manager and later the CEO of Life4Kids Kenya. Her leadership is grounded not only in professional training, but in lived compassion and tireless advocacy for children in need. She is a mother to one daughter and to many boys whose lives have been transformed through safety, care, and love at Life4Kids. Her responsibilities extend far beyond management. Jane is directly involved in child rescues, protection, and ensuring that every boy is happy, healthy, educated, and emotionally supported. Jane works around the clock throughout the year, responding to emergencies, guiding staff, and ensuring that the home remains a place of dignity, joy, and belonging. Her passion and dedication are evident in every aspect of the children's lives. In her own words, spoken with humility and deep conviction: “I love the boys as my own. I am privileged and honored to be part of their life stories.”

Final Word – Jane's Message

“As we start this new year, I would like to express my deepest gratitude to all our supporters!”
